EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT EXPERIENCE

Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE), University of Virginia (USA)	2025 – current
Associate Professor and Associate Director
Integrating inclusive pedagogies and partnership-oriented mindsets across existing and newly designed CTE programming in alignment with instructional, professional, and organizational development needs of the university. Supporting local, national, and international collaborations and initiatives focused on valuing critical reflective practice in post-secondary education, fostering educational justice, cultivating intercultural development, and promoting equitable learning.
Centre for the Integration of Research, Teaching & Learning (CIRTL), University College Cork (Ireland)	2022 – 2025
Senior Lecturer (Associate Professor) in Teaching and Learning Enhancement
Promoting active and sustained engagement in Teaching & Learning Enhancement via CIRTL academic leadership, research, curriculum design, teaching, strategic planning, professional development programming, organizational development efforts, institutional governance, and European partnerships. Supporting local, national, and international collaborations and initiatives focused on valuing critical reflective practice in post-secondary education, fostering educational justice, cultivating intercultural development, and promoting equitable learning.
Co-leading University College Cork (UCC)'s Teaching & Learning activities for the UNIC European University alliance (The European University of Post-Industrial Cities, 10 institutions); representing UCC in the UNIC Centre for Teaching and Learning (CTL) network across the alliance, co-designing and facilitating programming for the Inclusive Education core element of the UNIC CTL Hub and UNIC Inter-Teach: Intercultural and Innovative Teaching and Learning professional development program.
PI of the UCC Co-creating Inclusion & Equity in Teaching & Learning (CIETL) project funded by Ireland's national Program for Access to Higher Education, focused on 1) Pedagogical Partnerships approaches to address National Access Plan student experience priorities (socio-economic disadvantage, minority communities, disabilities); 2) strengthening our CIRTL Fellows program by developing intentional structures for a) enabling their growth as equity-minded change agents and b) increasing their role's visibility, transparency and integration across campus; and 3) researching internationally accessible professional pathways for Educational Development and Inclusive Teaching & Learning Enhancement in Higher Education
Office for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning (ATL), University of Rhode Island (USA)	2019-2022
Faculty Development Specialist
Conducted hundreds of consultations: assessment/course/curriculum design, interpretation of IDEA Student Ratings of Instruction, mid-semester feedback / Small Group Instructional Diagnosis, action planning for course innovations implementation, Scholarship of Teaching and Learning, strategizing for course-level and department-level Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion interventions. Managed and facilitated an array of diverse Faculty Development programs promoting active and sustained engagement in evidence-based teaching strategies and critical reflection on supporting students' learning (100+ workshops series, annual showcases, special events & guest speakers, new faculty orientations, multi-day intensive institutes, week-long retreats, semester-long seminars, year-long initiatives, faculty partners projects). 2021-22 example: Faculty Learning Community "Grading for Learning: Empowering Students with Agency for Growth"
Cultivated and strengthened core areas of a multi-pronged programming model and expanded it with collaborative creation of new High Impact Teaching seminars (cohort-based models culminating in action planning for course change and individual follow-ups for implementation support), Inclusive Excellence book clubs & Faculty Learning Communities, and a Faculty Affiliates program (multi-year appointments with diverse roles: college/departmental liaisons, SoTL champions, peer-support)
Forged and sustained multiple partnerships with diverse stakeholders across the institution in supporting its mission with a focus on critically valuing the professional development of its educators, fostering educational justice, cultivating cultural competence, and achieving equitable student success (including: Community, Equity & Diversity; Global Initiatives; University Libraries; Graduate School; Academic Enhancement Center; Talent Development, Institutional Research; Center for Career & Experiential Education; Early Career Faculty Network; Writing Across URI; The Good Five Cent Cigar student-run newspaper)

Worked closely with IT, partners, and other ATL units (Online Ed, Academic Testing Center, and Student Learning, Outcomes Assessment & Accreditation) in enabling and supporting university-wide shift to COVID-19 emergency remote instruction

Managed daily office logistics such as team meetings leadership and supervision of Graduate Student Assistants duties, including maintenance of programming records database on FileMaker
